Familiar Features Well Known to Hundreds of Barre Citizens
A familiar burden in many homes.

The burden of a "bad back." A lame, a weak or an aching back.

Often tells you of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is Barre testimony: George W. Lander, cigar manufacturer, 92 North Main street, Barre says:

"I had frequently seen Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in the local papers by citizens of Barre, but had no occasion to use them until my back began to bother me. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills acted as a tonic to my kidneys, and I have never needed a kidney medicine since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lander had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A NOVEL FEATURE.

Was Educational Meeting for Children at Lyndonville.

Lyndonville, Feb. 24.—A novel feature was introduced by the Lyndon Union club yesterday in the shape of an educational meeting in Music hall. The meeting was arranged especially for the children and every school in town was invited to participate, with a result that several hundred children were on hand. The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Frederick Abbott of Saco, Me., ex-president of the Maine State Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Robert E. Smith of White River Junction, president of the Vermont State Federation, was also present and made remarks. Following the meeting the club tea was served in the hall. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Glee club of Lyndonville, and the program proved a very helpful one.

The following committee had the meeting charge: Mrs. M. S. Giles, chairman; Miss Clara Eastman, Miss Miriam A. Rhodes, Miss Helen E. Cunningham, Miss Ella E. Batchelder, Miss Ella Wilmarth.

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Merle, daughter of Walter Drew of Warren, was taken ill in school with scarlet fever last Thursday, which has necessitated the closing of the room. The child is very ill.

Lewis A. Howard of Brattleboro, a farmer and milkman, met with an accident Saturday and another on Sunday. On Saturday he was kicked by one of his horses in the stable, injuring one leg. No bones were broken, but the leg was severely bruised. On Sunday a bull in the stable kicked him in one eye, cutting the flesh, but not injuring the eye.

Plans are being completed for the repairs on the Clark residence in Milton, which Mrs. Kate Clark presented the town. In it will be built a vault and the building will contain the town clerk's office, public library and reading room, with a one-story addition which will be used as a town hall and opera house, with a basement underneath for storage of the town tools and machinery.

In the burning of the farmhouse of Fred C. Norton in Ludlow Sunday, an old landmark was removed. Everything in the house was burned, even the cat and dog. The house was built by Squire William Smith, one of the first wooden manufacturers of that valley. It contained 11 outside doors. It was not the custom in the days of Squire Smith to keep doors on farmhouses locked, but, on a trip to Europe, he was impressed with the appearance of a handsome lock for an outer door. He bought it and brought it home as an ornament to one outer door, leaving the other 10 unfastened.

The officials of the Fort Dummer Mills corporation have decided to move the treasurer's office from Brattleboro to Providence, R. I., and have sent notice to their customers that on and after March 1 the office will be located at 17 Exchange street, Edward G. Chase, treasurer, is in Providence much of the time, and Clements A. Brown, office manager, will go there when the change is made. This arrangement will be more convenient and economical. The buying and selling will be done in the Providence office, but an office for the superintendent, M. G. Morrill, will be maintained in the manufacturing plant at Brattleboro. The two stenographers in the treasurer's office will not be transferred to Providence.

Deaths of Vermonters.

George Thrall, a native of Rutland and long-time resident of Rutland county, died Feb. 22 at Detroit, Mich., aged 80 years. He had been proprietor of hotels at Worcester, Mass., Mobile, Ala., and Omaha, Neb.

Sidney L. Morris, 83 years old, an old-time stage driver between Townshend and Brattleboro, and for many years a retired resident of West Brattleboro, died Feb. 22. He was born in Wilmington. Of late years he had spent the winters in the South.

Arthur L. Williams, principal of the Saugus, Mass., high school, died at his home Feb. 21 of pneumonia, at the age of 36 years. At the time of his death, the student body was in prayer at the high school for his recovery. Mr. Williams graduated from the University of Vermont in 1904, and then became sub-principal at the high school in Lyndonville. Since that time he has been principal in several Massachusetts towns.

V. S. A. NOTES.

The Aggies held a Washington ball at Randolph Monday evening, Feb. 21. Many from Randolph and the Center attended. A good time was reported by all. Goodheart and Cantin furnished music. Prin. and Mrs. Green attended the cake walk at Burlington Tuesday evening, Feb. 22.

The drama, "Old Black Joe," was presented to a good house Saturday evening, Feb. 19, by the Randolph Center Dramatic club. The same play will be given at East Randolph Friday evening, Feb. 25.

The following alumni were back for the farmers' meeting and the play: Chaffee, Chapple and Gibson of the class '13; Burke, 14, and Cooley, Plumley and Bisbee of the class of '15.

CATARH IS CURABLE

1,000—SAY SO!
I Will Gladly Tell You How—FREE

HEALS DAY AND NIGHT

Don't let anybody tell you that catarrh is not curable. It can be cured—I know it—and I have proved it—and will prove it to YOU—FREE of cost—NOW. Never mind what you've tried, or how many times you have been disappointed. I cured my own suffering—my friends, THOUSANDS have written words of praise for showing them how to rid themselves of catarrh suffering—right in their own home—without traveling.

There may be ten thousand wrong ways, but there is ONE RIGHT WAY. I want you to know it—AT ONCE—FREE. Your hacking, spitting, sneezing, nose blowing, heartburn, head aches, colds, deafness, nausea, catarrhal diseases or headache vanish. Never mind how great or extravagant these promises may seem, it can be PROVEN it is true.

IT STOPPED MY SUFFERING—AND MY FRIENDS'
You don't have to use salve, pastes, greases, jellies, lotions, ointments, sprays, atomizers, nebulizers, electricity, massage, vibration, surgery, douching, or anything else, but simply use my "Catarrh Cure." It is a simple, safe, and sure remedy, and it is known as "tumbling." The articles are placed in a machine something like a churn, together with a number of steel balls, usually of very small diameter, and a given quantity of Japan. The churn is then closed down and given a dozen or so rapid turns, during which the steel balls carry the Japan to every part of the articles.

The contents of the churn are then dumped out on to wire trays. These being agitated, the steel balls fall through the meshes, leaving the painted iron parts behind.

JUST RISK ONE PENNY
Surely, you will spend a penny for a postal to get the truth FREE. Just write and say: "Tell me how I can rid myself of catarrh suffering. FREE." Address me RIGHT NOW: SAM KATZ, Suite U1601, 2909 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Would Obey Orders.
The foreman swore at Cassidy for not fully loading up his hod. The hod, he said, would hold so many bricks, and Cassidy must take a full load up the ladder every trip.

One morning the supply of bricks ran out and Cassidy, after gathering every brick in sight, found he was still short of the proper number. He yelled up to a workman on the fifth story.

"What do you want?" asked the workman.

"Throw me down was brick," shouted Cassidy, "to make good me load."—Boston Transcript.

BREAK UP BRONCHIAL COUGHS, CROUP AND COLDS PROMPTLY

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 50 Cents

Don't neglect your cold, cough, or any bronchial affection, but commence treatment immediately, and through using the proper medicine it can be checked from the very start and promptly cured, but if neglected probably will hang on all spring; if it does not develop into something more serious, such as pneumonia or consumption. True, there are hundreds, yes, thousands, of cough remedies on the market. While some are good, there are many which are not, but are positively harmful, due to the narcotics which they contain. But why experiment with these different remedies purely on the strength, perhaps, of some testimonials or on the exaggerated claims of manufacturers, when Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectant is sold by E. A. Brown on such a positive guarantee to give perfect satisfaction, even where money will be refunded by them if it is not found the best remedy ever used in severe coughs, colds, whooping cough or croup, and it will also be found excellent for bronchial asthma and bronchitis. Besides these drug-gists guaranteeing "that it will be the best remedy ever used," it will likewise be found the most economical, because one bottle (50 cents' worth) makes a full pint (128 teaspoonful) of the most excellent medicine for any of the above affections, when mixed at home with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water. It makes as much, or more, than would cost you $2.00 to $3.00 of most of the ordinary ready-made drinks, sold in bottles holding only 24 to 32 teaspoonful. You will be the sole judge yourself and under the same positive "money back" guarantee which the druggists make for the famous Asthmador. Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy.—Adv.

This Very Day.

"Seize your opportunity," was the advice of Pittacus, one of the seven wise men of Greece. To grasp the swiftly moving moment is the repeated injunction of the Bible. "Teach me to number my days," said Moses. "Make me to know mine end and the number of my days," said David, and Job, who had a peculiarly sane grasp on the things that make for success in all departments of life, is conscious that the days fly through his hands "swifter than the weaver's shuttle."

Lord Chesterfield said that the Duke of Newcastle lost an hour in the morning and spent the rest of the day looking for it. Benjamin Constant's cry of regret should be a warning to us who do not regard the systematizing of our day's task: "How I lose my time! What an unarrangeable life mine is!"

The uncertainty of life as well as its swift passage should incite us to live to the top of our ability today. We say, "Some day I hope to get time to read." "Some day I hope to get time to attend to cultivating religious habits." But "some day" is today or probably never.—Christian Herald.

Painting Hooks and Eyes.

There are many methods of mechanical painting, and some of the most extraordinary are described by Arthur Seymour Jennings in his book, "Painting by Immersion and by Compression." One method, for such articles as books and eyes, eyelets and very small iron parts generally which cannot be successfully dipped or sprayed, is known as "tumbling." The articles are placed in a machine something like a churn, together with a number of steel balls, usually of very small diameter, and a given quantity of Japan. The churn is then closed down and given a dozen or so rapid turns, during which the steel balls carry the Japan to every part of the articles.

The contents of the churn are then dumped out on to wire trays. These being agitated, the steel balls fall through the meshes, leaving the painted iron parts behind.
